SECTION III

SELECTION OF DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES

A. DISTRICT-LEVEL DELEGATES AND ALTERNATES

1. Alaska is allocated 8 district-level delegates and 3 district-level alternates. (Rule 8.C., Call, I.B. & I.I.)
2. District-level delegates and alternates shall be elected by a caucus process, using a two-tier system.
  - a. 1st tier: Precinct / House District Caucuses, February 5, 2008, 5:00PM. Precincts within House Districts combine to hold House District-wide caucuses. The purposes of the House District Caucuses are (1) to allocate state convention delegates based on presidential preference or uncommitted status of caucus participants; and (2) to elect delegates to the state convention. Entire body elects delegates to state convention. The order of business at the caucuses will be 1)Party verification/registration; 2>Welcome from Party official; 3)Presentation from Presidential campaigns; 4)Explanation of caucus process; 5)Presidential fan-outs; 6)Election of delegates to State Party convention; 7)Adjournment of Presidential caucuses; 8)Announcement of Precinct/House District business meeting time/place.
  - b. 2nd tier: State Party Convention, May 24, 2008. Selection of national convention delegation; all delegates, alternates, standing committee members and pages. If a delegate to the state convention is not able to attend, the next-highest vote-getting alternate moves into the delegate slot, being mindful of gender balance and other goals for inclusion. District-level delegates and alternates to the national convention will be selected by a caucus of persons who sign statements of support for the same presidential candidate.

- c. Adoption of party platform, resolutions and changes to party plan of organization and state party officer elections take place.

3. Apportionment of District-Level Delegates and Alternates

- a. Alaska’s district-level delegates and alternates are apportioned among the districts based on a formula giving equal weight to the vote for the Democratic candidates in the 2004 presidential and the most recent gubernatorial elections. (Rule 8.A.; Regs. 4.11., 4.12. & Appendix A)
- b. The state’s total number of district-level delegates will be equally divided between men and women. (Rule 6.C.(1) & Reg. 4.8.)
- c. The district-level delegates and alternates are apportioned to districts as indicated in the following chart:

District	Delegates			Alternates
	Males	Females	Total	Males	Females	Total
#1	4	4	8	1 or 2	1 or 2	3
Total	4	4	8	1 or 2	1 or 2	3

- d. The number of delegates to be seated at the State Convention shall be determined on the basis of one delegate for each two hundred fifty (250) votes, or any fraction thereof, cast for the Democratic nominee for statewide office receiving the most votes statewide in the previous election, provided the State Central Committee has not changed the divisor. All such apportionment shall be computed and assigned on the basis of State House of Representatives Districts and the delegates must reside within the House Election District upon which the apportionment is based. Alaska Democratic Party Plan, Article V, Section 15 (Rule 8.B.)

4. District-Level Delegate and Alternate Filing Requirements

Each presidential candidate, or that candidate's authorized representative(s), must then file with the State Democratic Chair by 5 p.m. Thursday, May 1, 2008 a list of all such delegate candidates he or she has approved, provided that approval be given to at least three (3) times the number of candidates for delegate men and three (3) times the number of candidates for delegate women, and three (3) times the number of candidates for alternate men and three (3) times the number of alternate women to be selected. (Rule 12.E.(1), Reg. 4.23.)
    - c. Therefore, the national convention delegates elected at the district level shall be allocated in proportion to the percentage of the caucus vote won at state convention by each preference, except that preferences falling below a 15% threshold shall not be awarded any delegates or alternates. Percentages shall be determined at the district-level state convention. (Rule 13.B)

3. Performance under an approved Affirmative Action Plan and composition of the convention delegation shall be considered relevant evidence in the challenge to any state delegation. If a State Party has adopted and implemented an approved affirmative action program, the State Party shall not be subject to challenge based solely on delegation composition or primary results. (Rule 6.B.) The procedures are the same for challenges alleging failure to properly implement the Affirmative Action section of a Plan, except that such challenges must be filed not later than thirty (30) days prior to the initiation of the state's delegate selection process. (Reg. 3.4.C.)
4. Depending on the appropriate jurisdiction (see Section VIII.A. above), implementation challenges must be brought in conformity with the Regulations of the Rules and Bylaws Committee or the Rules of Procedure of the Credentials Committee, which should be consulted for a detailed explanation of challenge procedures.
